Crescent Women

Crescent is a versatile hybrid jacket that combines exclusive design with our experience in quality outerwear, elegantly made for layering and transitional weather.

Smoothly knitted sleeves combined with fleece and strategically placed panels with insulation made from recycled polyester at the front provide the essential warmth where it is most needed.

Crescent is a versatile wardrobe piece that pairs well with both classic and more modern clothing. The men's version has a stand-up collar, while the women's version features a feminine cut with a low collar.

- Main YKK Metalux zipper
- Insulation made from recycled polyester
- Side pockets with zippers
