Fairview Women

Fairview is a highly technical winter jacket with Sorona® Aura insulation, providing comfort and warmth without excessive bulk. It is a breathable, windproof, and waterproof outerwear piece, very useful for navigating urban spaces.

The modern and clean design combines traditional details with unrivaled fitting comfort. Supported by functional and weather-protective elements such as taped seams, a detachable hood, windproof cuffs, and a slightly extended back panel.

- Recycled fabric
- Windproof lycra cuff on the sleeve
- Detachable and adjustable hood
- Reverse YKK main zipper
