Northdale Men

Northdale is our luxurious winter jacket with many details that give it a more urban, business character while maintaining the elegant and refined design characteristic of Nimbus products.

The Northdale winter jacket is designed with sustainability in mind - both the outer material and the warm Sugentro® insulation are made from recycled polyester. The technical material with taped seams ensures that the jacket offers excellent protection against cold and wind during the winter months.

- Recycled fabric
- Wind and water-resistant with taped seams
- Sugentro® insulation
- YKK main zipper
- Invisible snaps on the front placket
