Northdale Women

Northdale is our luxurious winter jacket with many details that give it a more urban, business character while maintaining the elegant and sophisticated design characteristic of Nimbus products.

The Northdale winter jacket was designed with sustainability in mind – both the outer material and the warm Sugentro® insulation are made from recycled polyester. The technical material with taped seams ensures that the jacket provides excellent protection against cold and wind during the winter months.

- Recycled fabric
- Wind and waterproof with taped seams
- Sugentro® insulation
- Main YKK zipper
- Invisible snaps on the front placket
